

The Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) document will help you choose a health plan. The SBC shows you how you and the plan would share the cost for covered health care services. NOTE: Information about the cost of this plan (called the premium) will be provided separately.

This is only a summary. Please read the FEHB Plan brochure ([RI 71-005]) that contains the complete terms of this plan. All benefits are subject to the definitions, limitations, and exclusions set forth in the FEHB Plan brochure. Benefits may vary if you have other coverage, such as Medicare. For general definitions of common terms, such as allowed amount, balance billing, coinsurance, copayment, deductible, provider, or other underlined terms see the Glossary. You can get the FEHB Plan brochure at feblue.org/brochure, and view the Glossary at www.dol.gov/ebsa/healthreform. | What is the overall deductible?                             | $ 350 /Self Only$ 700 /Self Plus One$ 700 /Self and Family                                                                                                                        | Generally, you must pay all of the costs from providers up to the deductible amount before this plan begins to pay. Copayments and coinsurance amounts do not count toward your deductible, which generally starts over January 1. When a covered service/supply is subject to a deductible , only the Plan allowance for the service/supply counts toward the deductible . If you have other family members on the plan , each family member must meet their own individual deductible until the total amount of deductible expenses paid by all family members meets the overall family deductible . |
| Are there services covered before you meet your deductible? | Yes. Preventive care and primary care services are covered before you meet your deductible.                                                                                                                       | This plan covers some items and services even if you haven't yet met the deductible amount. But a copayment or coinsurance may apply.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Are there other deductibles for specific services?          | No.                                                                                                                                                                                                               | You don't have to meet deductibles for specific services.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

Your Rights to Continue Coverage: You can get help if you want to continue your coverage after it ends. See the FEHB Plan brochure, contact your HR office/retirement system, contact your plan at [contact number] or visit www.opm.gov/insure/health. Generally, if you lose coverage under the plan, then, depending on the circumstances, you may be eligible for a 31-day free extension of coverage, a conversion policy (a non-FEHB individual policy), spouse equity coverage, or temporary continuation of coverage (TCC). Other coverage options may be available to you too, including buying individual insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. For more information about the Marketplace, visit www.HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596.

Your Grievance and Appeals Rights: If you are dissatisfied with a denial of coverage for claims under your plan, you may be able to appeal. For information about your appeal rights please see Section 3, "How you get care," and Section 8 "The disputed claims process," in your FEHB Plan brochure. If you need assistance, you can contact your local BCBS company at the customer service number on the back of your member ID card.

Does this plan provide Minimum Essential Coverage? [Yes]

Minimum Essential Coverage generally includes plans, health insurance available through the Marketplace or other individual market policies, Medicare, Medicaid, CHIP, TRICARE, and certain other coverage. If you are eligible for certain types of Minimum Essential Coverage, you may not be eligible for the premium tax credit.

Does this plan meet the Minimum Value Standards? [Yes]

If your plan doesn't meet the Minimum Value Standards, you may be eligible for a premium tax credit to help you pay for a plan through the Marketplace.

About these Coverage Examples:

This is not a cost estimator. Treatments shown are just examples of how this plan might cover medical care. Your actual costs will be different depending on the actual care you receive, the prices your providers charge, and many other factors. Focus on the cost sharing amounts (deductibles, copayments and coinsurance) and excluded services under the plan. Use this information to compare the portion of costs you might pay under different health plans. Please note these coverage examples are based on self-only coverage.
